Answer the questions from 59-62, according to the passage below. (Each question is 2 pts.)

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) known as the International Bank or as the World Bank is an agency of the United Nations established in 1945. It has the primary function of making loans available to assist developing countries. Usually loans are made to finance specific projects of investment in underdeveloped countries and the bank will make a loan only if it is satisfied that the investment will yield a revenue sufficient enough to enable the interest on the loan and the repayment of the sum lent. Yet, it is clear that some projects of great value to underdeveloped countries cannot be financed in this way because they would not yield the results quickly enough to meet the Bank's requirements for interest and repayment.

59. It is pointed out in the passage that World Bank was founded to

- _____
- a) provide the UN with constant source of income for its various major developmental projects
 - b) bring all developing countries up to the same level of economic prosperity no matter how hard it seems
